CONSTRUCTIVE CLOSURE FOR COUPLES A Ritual for Saying Goodbye to Your Relationship with Honor and Respect

"Hedy's ability to sustain contact and connection is contagious. Her wisdom and attunement helped my husband and me talk about issues at depth we had never before experienced. Not a day has gone by when I haven't been conscious of some aspect of our work together. It was a gift that keeps on giving."

Constructive

Closure

Divorce is a terrible time of crisis. The divorce process heightens feelings of fear, guilt, vulnerability, and hopelessness. Angry conflict increases as the relationship ends. Worst of all, the children –if any– get caught in the crossfire.

In private, full-day sessions, relationship specialist Hedy Schleifer helps couples create Constructive Closure for their marriages. She can help you close the book on the anger, pain, and destructive cycle that is the story of your marriage. She'll guide you to commence a new, productive story for your separated lives.

When children are involved, this becomes critical. Although the spousal relationship ends, your relationship as co-parents will last a lifetime. Children thrive, even after divorce, when they're allowed to have a secure relationship with both parents.

In an intensive and private, two-day program, Hedy will show you how to cleanse the polluted relational space that exists between you and your partner. You'll learn how to release old resentments and experience Constructive Closure—a healing way to end your relationship.

Couples are amazed when Hedy shows them how to dissolve old power struggles. Her compassionate wisdom has helped thousands of couples worldwide see their relationships in a new way. Through Constructive Closure, couples:

- Can be friends, even after divorce
- Learn a new way to be connected
- Proceed in their lives with added relational understanding and maturity
- Increase and strengthen their parenting skills

Constructive

Closure

Some couples suddenly see the possibility of a new way to be re-connected.

You'll say goodbye with honor and respect to your relationship and each other. It doesn't seem possible, but it is.

Constructive Closure is a private two-day program. Hedy works with couples from 9 am to 6 pm on both days. Call the office to schedule a Constructive Closure session or ask for more information. While each program is individualized and unique to the couple involved, all are profound and life changing.
