

Tikkun: An Integrative Approach to Coaching Couples

Three Day Training with Hedy Schleifer and 24 CEUs

You will learn to empower your couples to transform their relationships into a creative force and a "living laboratory" for:

- "Dissolving" rather than resolving problems
- Using relational 'mistakes' as launching pads for success
- Transforming divisiveness into connection
- Becoming increasingly relationally mature

The Tikkun Training will include:

- The theoretical basis of the Relational Paradigm*
- A description of the relational developmental journey and its impact on the couple's "dance."
- Live demonstrations of relational coaching skills
- Supervised coaching practice sessions
- How to introduce the Relational Paradigm* to couples as a transformational tool
- How to assist couples in raising their "Relational IQ"
- How to empower couples in welcoming the genius that lives in their relational space

Hedy is a renowned expert on relationships. Often referred to as "The Therapist's Therapist," Hedy is known internationally for her extraordinary training programs for therapists. She is a licensed mental health counselor, has an MA in psychology from Tel Aviv University and has worked as a clinician for over 30 years.

Tikkun is a revolutionary approach based on a synergetic integration of the "Relational Space" concept of Martin Buber, Imago Relationship Theory, Appreciative Inquiry, and Relational Brain Neurobiology.

The Relational Paradigm is founded on the idea that the essential nature of human beings is to be in connection, that dis-connection is part of an adaptive survival pattern, and that we are differentiated and yet interdependent.

It is with great pleasure that I invite you to a three day training which I will be presenting in Miami on February 5-7, 2010. Approved for 24 CEUs, this course represents the tapestry that I have woven over 30 years of clinical work, and my newest understandings of the application of the Relational Paradigm to my work with couples. The training is called TIKKUN: Exploring the Power of Connection.*

The Hebrew word Tikkun, combines four elements: repair, healing, transformation and completion. I will be teaching and demonstrating the theoretical foundations and the practical applications to couples coaching that most inform and inspire my work these days. I invite you to join me as we together continue to explore the many dimensions of the Relational Paradigm.
